

1. I am a new listener to K-LOVE, it is such a joy to listen to a station that does not have rap, hard rock and questionable language. This station truly does have wonderful family values.
2. It is getting harder and harder to find any media that encourages good christian values instead of demeaning them.
3. Our children need another alternative to songs of rape, violence, drugs, and gang music.